

Tribune 3/4/10

To Hold Discussion Of Psychoanalysis & AA

The Academy of Clinical and Applied Psychoanalysis (ACAP-NJ) of Livingston will present a discussion program, "Midwives to the Soul: Psychoanalysis and AA - Working with the Recovering Alcoholic/Addict" on Friday, March 5, from 7 to 9 p.m.

The program will feature ACAP faculty member Alice Weintraub, NCPsya. Weintraub is a graduate of the Center for Modern Psychoanalytic Studies (CMPS) and is in private practice in Leonia, focusing on addiction, depression, and attachment.

A donation to ACAP will be accepted at the door. For more information, visit www.acapnj.org. To reserve a seat for the March 5 program, call 973-251-9312 or send an e-mail to events@acapnj.org.

ACAP Tools for Living Well!

The Academy of Clinical & Applied Psychoanalysis, ACAP, in Livingston, is a unique community resource offering a range of services and academic programs for professionals and anyone curious to learn innovative strategies for getting more of what you want from life. From its nationally accredited clinical training program; its Applied Division Friday Night Live series on hot issues we all face and staff development programs in corporations, schools, senior care facilities; its cable TV show: "Tools for Life"; its Community Resource Partnering Network, and its treatment service NJCC - where no one is turned away because of diagnosis or finances.

ACAP is there for you and the community.

www.acapnj.org

973-629-1001

Tribune 3/4/10

To Hold Discussion Of Psychoanalysis & AA

The Academy of Clinical and Applied Psychoanalysis (ACAP-NJ) of Livingston will present a discussion program, "Midwives to the Soul: Psychoanalysis and AA - Working with the Recovering Alcoholic/Addict" on Friday, March 5, from 7 to 9 p.m.

The program will feature ACAP faculty member Alice Weintraub, NCPsya. Weintraub is a graduate of the Center for Modern Psychoanalytic Studies (CMPS) and is in private practice in Leonia, focusing on addiction, depression, and attachment.

A donation to ACAP will be accepted at the door. For more information, visit www.acapnj.org. To reserve a seat for the March 5 program, call 973-251-9312 or send an e-mail to events@acapnj.org.

ACAP Tools for Living Well!

The Academy of Clinical & Applied Psychoanalysis, ACAP, in Livingston, is a unique community resource offering a range of services and academic programs for professionals and anyone curious to learn innovative strategies for getting more of what you want from life. From its nationally accredited clinical training program; its Applied Division Friday Night Live series on hot issues we all face and staff development programs in corporations, schools, senior care facilities; its cable TV show: "Tools for Life"; its Community Resource Partnering Network, and its treatment service NJCC - where no one is turned away because of diagnosis or finances.

ACAP is there for you and the community.

www.acapnj.org

973-629-1001

4/8/10 Thursday

Talk on In-Laws At ACAP April 16

The Academy of Clinical and Applied Psychoanalysis (ACAP) in Livingston will present a "Friday Night Live at ACAP" discussion and dialogue led by Mary Massaro, MS, NCPsyA, on Friday, April 16. Her topic will be "Face It, You Married Them Too! On Being and Having In-Laws." The program will take place from 7 to 9 p.m. at the ACAP offices, 301 South Livingston Avenue. Admission will be charged, and reservations may be made by calling 973-251-9312 or sending an e-mail to events@acapnj.org.

Massaro is a psychoanalyst, fellow and teacher at ACAP, as well as an executive director of Balanced Health Systems. She is consultant to major corporations and school districts on wellness, stress management, productivity and group team effectiveness. In addition, she is the director of the Stress Management; Wellness; and Parenting Institutes at Long Island University.

Sponsor Spring Party For Special Needs People

The Livingston Advisory Committee for Disabilities (LACD) will hold a spring party for children and adults with special needs and their families on Saturday, April 12, at the Hillside Avenue community center. The party, which will run from noon to 2 p.m., will feature music by a DJ, dancing, arts and crafts, and refreshments.

The event is sponsored by the LACD in conjunction with the Family Resource Network and co-sponsored by the Livingston Elks Lodge. For registration or additional information, call Katie Doster at 973-244-0850, extension 302, or send her an e-mail at kdoster@familyresourcenetwork.org.

LHS GIRLS' VARSITY LAC displayed by the Lancers and of the Inaugural Girls' Jake C day evening, April 1. Shown #32 Dani Glantz and #21 Ellie Cory Connor, who holds the Cohen as assistant coach Jeff Dykman # 6 and Kyle Feldm. Millers defeated the Lancers i

Excerpts from the West Essex Tribune 40 Years Ago

April 9, 1970: The Essex All Star Pee Wee hockey team scored a 7-0 victory at South Mountain Arena over the Ville Emard Hurricanes of Montreal, Canada. Scoring for the locals were Livingston residents Dave Tracy, Doug Hynes, Paul MacNicoll, and Bob Peacock, with Brant Polzer in goal.

The Township Council approved an ordinance to provide for the construction of sanitary sewers in the southwestern part of Livingston, including Passaic Avenue and Dickinson and Volker Lanes.

The township was planning a Drug Identification Program to help members of the general public planned a march down Livingston Avenue to protest the conflict in Southeast Asia.

Although there were no Livingston births listed 40 years ago this week, the weddings of four residents were announced. Ernest J. Sorenson, son of Alice M. Sorensen of Livingston and the late Ernest H. Sorensen, wed Linda B. Hladek of Bayside, New York. Phyllis Marcia Halper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Halper of 8 Tilden Court, was married to Gregg Harris Greenspan of Memphis, Tennessee.

Lester Jay Schwartz, son of Mr.

Arts Association Has Spring Classes

The Livingston Arts Association will begin its spring session of classes for adults and for elementary and middle school students on Saturday, April 10. All classes will be held in craft rooms three and four at the Hillside Avenue community center. All classes will run for nine weeks.

Several adult classes have been scheduled. Monday classes will begin April 12. "Painting and Drawing from the Model" will be taught by Lauri Harden from 9:30 a.m. to noon. Ale Piccirillo will teach "Oils, Pastels, Acrylics and Drawing" from 12:30 to 3 p.m.

Tuesday classes will start on April 13. Mark de Mos will teach two classes in "Watercolor Techniques"

ACAP Announces Program Schedule

The Academy of Clinical and Applied Psychoanalysis (ACAP), a non-profit organization located at 301 South Livingston Avenue, has announced its schedule of programs for August, September and October.

On Tuesday, August 10, ACAP will offer "From Hopeless to Hope-Filled: Reaching the Unreachable Child," conducted by Shelia Zaretsky, Ph.D.

An open house program, "What Psychoanalytic Studies Can Do For You," will take place Thursday, August 19, from 6:45 to 8 p.m., and again on Sunday, October 17, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

September programs will include a seven-session mini course, "Introduction to Modern Psychoanalysis," presented by Demetria DeLia, Ph.D. and Vicki Semel, Psy.D., which will begin meeting Wednesday, September 22, from 6 to 8:15 p.m.

A four session program, "Impossible Cases: Open Group Supervision," led Maurice Lovell, Ph.D., will begin meeting Friday, September 24, from 2 to 3:30 p.m.. The course will also be offered in October, beginning Friday, October 22.

"The OOO Group: Making Object-Oriented Questions and Other Strategic Interventions Second Nature," led by Patricia Bratt, Ph.D., will meet for four sessions on Thursday, September 23, from 7:45 to 9 p.m. and again for four sessions beginning Thursday, October 21, from 7:45 to 9 p.m..

"Healing with Humor: The Mind Tickling the Body" will be presented by Karen Lazar, Ph.D. on Friday, October 8, from 7 to 9 p.m. "Mother and Daughter Through the Lifespan: Communicating and Not Communicating" will be discussed by Annette Vaccaro, L.C.S.W., on Sunday, October 17, from 1 to 3 p.m.

For more information, call 973-629-1001 or visit www.acapnj.org. ACAP is a nationally accredited psychoanalytic certificate program and provides continuing education credits for most professions.

Call to subscribe! 973-992-1771.